3D Printer Experience - Customized Fidget Spinner 3D Model

Donated by Allen A. Hirashiki

Experience creating your own fidget spinner from idea to actual parts! Great for the curious or those already familiar with 3D technology. No experience necessary! One lucky winner, with the help of mechanical engineer and St. Timothy's parishioner, Allen Hirashiki, will customize a fidget spinner 3D model, see video of your part being 3D printed, then assemble the parts into your own fidget spinner. Allen will do the computer aided design based on one selected design of up to three of your concepts. Allen will have it 3D printed for you from tough transparent blue and amber plastic and he will video the process. The parts will be assembled for you or you can meet with Allen for a guided session.

This is a two part experience: 1. Design session - via video conference or in person at St. Timothy's Grace House Teen Center. 2. Assembly session - finished assembly or parts sent to your home for you to assemble or a guided session at the St. Timothy's Grace House Teen Center. These two sessions will be at a convenient, mutually agreed upon time (two 30-60 minute sessions on separate weekends). Note: See display description for full details.

How to Bid on the Silent Auction

To bid on an item, just write your bid number on the bid form. Please press firmly and write clearly.

Be sure you follow instructions. Minimum bids and bid raises are preprinted on the bid forms. They are different for each item!

Winning bids will be posted on the auction tables after they close down.

Silent Auction is over at 5:45! The MC will announce the closing of silent auction tables starting at 5:30. PLEASE, no bidding after table closes. Do not erase your bids or anyone else's!!! This is not a contact sport. Play nice. You do not have to be present to win an auction item. Your spouse said you can bid on anything you want.

Silent Auction and Raffles

Every effort was made to make sure the descriptions on the actual auction displays are correct and complete with the information provided by the donors. We apologize for any errors or omissions.

Restrictions - Some of the gift certificates have expiration dates or other terms and conditions. These are usually quite reasonable, but we don't want you to be disappointed! We have tried to list them on the bid sheet or displays, and if you have any concerns, ask any of the auction staff tonight. Most of the gift certificates will be given to you when you checkout in the bank. Unless otherwise specified, vacation home donations do not include transportation.

Specific Dates - Some of the auction offerings are events that have specific dates. Please be sure the event date works for you. We cannot issue refunds if you are unable to attend.
