June 9 Pentecost Sunday.

Thank you

For Lent, Holy Week and Easter, I have an enormous thank you list. I'm know I'm treading into dangerous water (possibly forgetting somebody). If I do, please tell me.

Thank you to our youth serving at the Altar and lectern - for some it was a first time.

Thank you to every Altar Guild team member for prepping so many services.

Thank you to Camilla for steadying the Altar Guild while Cathy was out (even though Cathy helped us from afar).

Thank you to Sandy and Tom for cutting palms and installing them in the church for Palm Sunday.

Thank you to Alison and Mike for leading a Sunday morning mini-series on contemplation.

Thank you to Rand for getting Pastor Susan a new mic headset. The old one was driving her crazy by the first Sunday of Lent.

Thank you to Steve, Eric, and Lisa others for a wonderful Lenten Wednesday night series (teaching and hospitality).

Thank you to Jim, Renie and family for mini sausage quiches (one of my new favorites) and a great spread on Easter morning.

Thank you to our Stations of the Cross leaders on Fridays.

Thank you Jim, Neal, Tom, and Steve for all the facility adjustments and fixes before Easter. Thank you to Jacque for the thousand little and big things she does behind the scenes - worship, fellowship, plants, etc.

Thank you to Nancy for helping coordinate Altar stripping on Maundy Thursday.

Thank you to Leslie for all the amazing liturgical art design and production. Thank you to her for healing ministry along with Nora, Susan and others. On top of all that, thank you to her for the work she's doing in Fruits of the Harvest

Thank you to the liturgical art installation team - Charlie, Kathy, Sandy, Dick and Stephen who made Leslie's vision possible.

Thank you to Helen who compiled and edited our Lenten meditation booklets.

Thank you to Tom who kept the fire going on Easter vigil. And thank you to all the people who brought your bells.

Thank you to Katie and Cindy for the steaming baptismal water on Easter Sunday morning at 7:30am.

Thank you to Greg for a wonderful Paschal candle and bulletin art.

Thank you to Michael and Don for excellent musical leadership at 7:30am on Easter morning.

Thank to Nancy, Nick and Michael for musical support throughout the season.

Thank you to Sally who helped print over 1000 bulletins all while keeping the plants watered. On top of that, thank you to her for training our new admin in the middle of the whirlwind.

Thank you to Kimberly, John Henry, and Shelley for a wonderful scavenger hunt. (We are still going to need more people to help because there were still kids who were "hoovering" up eggs.)

Thank you to the choir who was in the sanctuary as much as the clergy! (This may sound like hyperbole, but it was the most excellent music I've ever heard in an ashes to Easter worship cycle.)

Thank you to the innumerable ministry volunteers that served many, many times during Holy Week and Easter. Thanks to you all and ushers for their flexibility during Lent with regard to Altar rails. (Together we created and participated in excellent worship throughout Lent, Holy Week and Easter.)

Thank you to the worship team who helped us build a great worship cycle.

Thank you to Darita, Susan, and Bev for excellent music leadership, great preaching, and keeping the facility in great shape throughout Ashes to Easter.

Finally, thank you to all of you for the other 40+ Sundays of the year in which you serve.

Todd

Congratulations to our youth who will be confirmed at Grace Cathedral on June 2nd!

GREAT BIG ITALIAN SPOSALIZIO May 10!

CABARET & DINNER

Enjoy some of your favorite Italian meals ranging from Caprese Salad to some Holy Cannoli as we serenade you with music of Italian Opera and hit Broadway tunes. This is a casual potluck, so feel free to bring your favorite pasta or tiramisu to contribute to the spread, but if you don't have time before the show starts, please come anyway and enjoy the spread along with a glass of wine. A free event, but if you feel moved to give, all contributions will go towards benefiting the Music at St. Timothy's Concert Series. Let us kick off your Mother's Day Weekend!

Join us at 2:00 for fellowship, coffee or tea and a cookie or two on Tuesday, May 21 in Grace House. Come alone or bring a friend and we will gather for some stories and a little laughter. All are invited, young or mature, including men! We had a great turn-out last month and welcome drop-ins, even if it is only for a few minutes. WHY ARE WE DOING THIS? Because hunger, homelessness, addiction, mental health problems, need for nurses, and providing necessary services are never ending, and we are called to do something about it. This is how we raise funds to send grants to 14 ministries that we support.

Over 21 years, we have raised almost $650,000 for these worthwhile Ministries. Come see us at the rolling FOTH bulletin board outside or in the parish hall during coffee hour.

- ◆ Signup sheets to volunteer and to donate are on the rolling FOTH bulletin board. We have Solicitation Letters and Donation/Receipt Forms there and in Grace House.
- ◆ FOTH website: buy tickets or donate on-line. Sainttimothysdanville.org is our link to the site. Check out the pictures posted there of last year's fun times.

This is a parish-wide event with a silent auction. We need many volunteers to bring this event to life. Come sign up at the board. We have standing jobs, sitting jobs, jobs in every area. It is actually fun to help out with the auction during the event. Please think about how you can be involved and contribute. Newcomers, we invite you to join in. Also, singles are very welcome. We encourage people to dress according to the theme, or to come as their fabulous self...think bistro jazz club, or speakeasy 20's, or Mardi Gras attire.

DEADLINES

- ◆ YELLOW DONOR SHEETS can be submitted now or no later than May 5th! Please bring in auction items by the 5th and no later than the 12th, to Grace House Library by Sunday noon or during weekly business hours. Be sure to have a yellow donor sheet attached to your auction donation, including Wall of Wine bottles. We need to know who donated it.
- ◆ Early Bird pricing of $40 ends Sunday, May 5th so don't delay!

◆
We have some great auction items coming in! New this year is a Lobster Boil with all the trimmings for 30 people being given by the Heddens. The Greeters will offer a delicious Mexican dinner for eight. I can vouch that his was an outstanding dinner last year.

Don't forget to bring your calendars to the auction so you can be sure there are no conflicts on dates.

- ◆ Confidential Scholarships are available. We wouldn't want anyone to miss out on the fun. Please contact Leslie Firth, lesliefirth@comcast.net
- ◆ Free Childcare - Register by May 5th by submitting the Childcare form and contacting Kimberly Bryant: kharvin@hotmail.com. There is a form in the invitation envelope and there are more at the FOTH rolling bulletin board.
- ◆ FOTH WORK PARTY on Wed. May 8th, at 9:30 in the parish hall. Stay for as long as you have time. Come help us get a head start on decorating for FOTH. Bring scissors and a sack lunch. Sign Up sheet on the rolling FOTH bulletin board. Also, two helpers needed to put up the market lights on the breezeway and take them down a week after the event. This is not a difficult job.
- ◆ If you signed up to help set-up on Friday, May 17th and Saturday 18th, we'll start at 9:30 and we'll feed you lunch. This is a fun day to see it all come together.

Traditional Foods of New Orleans

King cake – Extra-large oval doughnut pastry dusted with colored candied sugar. A plastic baby doll is hidden inside the cake – the lucky person who gets the piece of cake with the doll inside buys the king cake for the next party of the Mardi Gras season.

Beignet (ben-yeiz) doughnuts shaped like little rectangular pillows and covered in powdered sugar

Praline (pronounced Praw'leen) Brown sugar pecan-filled candy patty. (Very sweet and so delicious you can't eat just one!

Crawfish – freshwater crustacean (also mudbug) Boiled, peeled and eaten by the bucketful, or put in dishes like crawfish e'touffee and gumbo.

Red Beans and Rice - traditionally simmered all day Monday while the household caught up on laundry duties. Everyone has their own version which is the best one.

Gumbo - a thick, spicy stew that often contains sausage, seafood, chicken, okra and other vegetables, served on a bed of rice. Like many New Orleans dishes, gumbo starts off with a slow-cooked roux that, depending on the cook's tastes, can range from a light golden color to a deep, dark brown.

Jambalaya is a traditional Creole dish that combines rice with vegetables and some type of meat, usually chicken and andouille sausage — think of jambalaya as the Crescent City's version of paella.

Muffaletta – A Sicilian-style sandwich, the Muffuletta consists of various cured meats, cheese and olive salad, surrounded by round sesame bread.

Po-Boys - a sort of Big-Easy take on the submarine sandwich. There are numerous variations, ranging from shrimp, to roast beef, to fried oysters.

Bananas Foster – a decadent dessert of bananas sautéed in butter, sugar and cinnamon and bathed in rum, which is set aflame and served over vanilla ice cream. It was created in the 1950s at Brennan's Restaurant.

SECOND LINE: A tradition and part of the cultural heritage of New Orleans.

The "main line" or "first line" is the main section of the parade, formed by club members with the parading permit as well as the brass band. Those who follow the band just to enjoy the music are called the "second line" and participate in the traditional dance in which participants slowly walk and sometimes twirl a parasol or handkerchief in the aisle. It has been called "the quintessential New Orleans art form – a jazz funeral without a body". Now Second Line parades are also used to celebrate weddings and for parties.

After the silent auction closes, get ready to have fun and join in on our own Second Line around the patio to the buffet line, so please bring a handkerchief to wave and/or decorate a parasol or umbrella and join in when the music starts to play. We'll really celebrate a New Orleans tradition.

Join us to help those in need by raising funds for Outreach.

The Feb., March, April, & this May issue of Tidings have much more news.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL (VBS)

June 3-7, 2019

"In the peaceful city of Zootopia, (have you seen the movie?) predators and prey live together in harmony...At VBS, we believe that the central message of Zootopia is valid for humans as well. Can we live together and share the love of God with all of God's creation: people, animals, and the very earth we all inhabit? Jesus calls us his friend. (Jn 15.15) We reflect the nature of God by sharing our love in the world. Our friends are there to celebrate with us in time of great joy and hold onto us in times of great sorrow. Friends, and the love we share, are the glue that holds everything together." The Rev. Mark Spalding
